Dear ASEM Colleagues,

We are pleased to share with you news on another ASEF education project this year:

The 2nd ASEF Higher Education Innovation Laboratory (ASEFInnoLab2) takes place from 4 November to 9 December 2021. Focusing on “Universities’ Role in AI Innovation Ecosystems”, the project explores the role of universities in national and regional innovation ecosystems in the age of artificial intelligence and applies a design thinking approach to assist participants in building strategies to work with businesses, policy makers, and international partners in these innovation ecosystems.

ASEFInnoLab2 is a 6-week long, fully funded, online learning and networking experience for university managers, administrators, and academics responsible for AI-related initiatives. The project is co-organised by ASEF and Fudan University and is supported by the Association of the Pacific Rim Universities \(APRU\).

We have recently launched the Open Call for Applications for university managers, administrators and academics and would highly appreciate your support in circulating it within your networks.
