COMMUNITY & PRACTICE

Gain insights! The Special Interest Group (SIG) Language Teaching and Learning – Collaborative, online, international learning (COIL) met online for the first time in June. With moderators Katarzyna Radke (AMU) & Marina Mattheoudakis (AUTH), they discussed the potentials of joint teaching and learning offers. Interested colleagues at all EPICUR universities are invited to join the SIG to exchange ideas and experiences and explore collaboration potential.

TEACH & CONNECT

Find your match! This month's search features Steven Randall (UFR), looking for co-teachers for English Academic Writing, specifically a first-year core course for EPICUR students to improve their English writing skills. If you are interested in co-teaching sections of this course, as well as contributing to co-creation of course materials, check Steven's entry in our CoTeachConnector. Funding is available for teaching staff (with MA or PhD) across the alliance!
