

ERASMUS PROGRAM

CHIBA UNIVERSITY JAPAN –
ARISTOTLE UNIVERSITY OF THESSALONIKI

WORKSHOP

Satoko Shao-Kobayashi, Assist. Prof. and Ioannis Gaitanidis, Assist. Prof.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

ARISTOTLE UNIVERSITY OF THESSALONIKI

30th October and 1st November 2018

Collaborative research application to a resilient cities project: the case of Thessaloniki metro

October 30 (Tuesday)

The GSP method: pedagogies for tackling multidisciplinary projects

10:00

break

10:50

Resilience: pros and cons of a key 21st century-concept

(I.Gaitanidis, E. Papadopoulou)

11:00

break

11:50

Culture and transportation challenges:
examples from Greece and Japan

(I.Gaitanidis, A. Papagiannakis, Assist.
Prof. AUTH)

12:00

break

12:50

Applying the GSP method: Space and human relations - how to find out about their connection

13:00

lunch

14:00-15:30

fieldwork

15:30-18:00

November 1 (Thursday)

Morning session

workshop

comparison and contrast of how the imagined and experienced “realities”
will impact on university life

10:00-
14:00

Afternoon session

presentation of findings in groups

15:30-
17:30

Coordination : Eleni Papadopoulou,
Professor, Erasmus Coordinator

CONTACT DR. Christina Emmanouil, School of Spatial Planning and Development
tel : 2310 998816, email : chemmanouil@plandevol.auth.gr

Deanship Seminar Room,
3rd wing, 1st floor